WHERE TO EAT

Fort Lauderdale is a melting pot for people from all over the world, and the food scene reflects that. From fresh seafood and sushi, to southern fried chicken, Fort Lauderdale has something for everyone.

Cafe Seville: This is a family-owned restaurant, so it's cozy and welcoming. Its traditional Spanish food, think fresh and diverse, with a ton of Spanish wine choices.

2768 E Oakland Park Blvd, Fort Lauderdale, FL 33306

Bayview Pizza and Grill: Relaxed and unassuming, this is a come as you are kind of place. Throw on some flip flops and enjoy a late-night pizza. They also offer delivery! (754) 200-6304

2720 E Oakland Park Blvd, Fort Lauderdale, FL 33306

Beg for More Sushi and Thai: We are huge fans of sushi restaurants, so one always seems to make the list. They have all the traditional rolls you like, plus delicious house specialties. They also have hot dishes like pad thai and cashew chicken.

2831 E Oakland Park Blvd, Fort Lauderdale, FL 33306

Flip Flops Dockside

Eatery: Whatever you're imagining this restaurant to be, it is. It's right on the water, and has a laid-back vibe. It reminds us of Key West. Crack open a cold beer and some crab legs, this is ultimate Florida dining.
